General Information

ABOUT NABE	NABE, a nonprofit professional association founded in 1959, provides programs to more than 2,400 active members and the members of forty-one chapters nation-wide. Our members are business analysts and economists, finance and treasury professionals, money managers and other market participants, and policy makers. Alan Greenspan is a past president.
MEETING PARTICIPANTS— who we are	Three hundred professionals from major corporations, small businesses, non-profit associations, universities, and government. Industries represented: energy, construction, manufacturing, transportation, communication, utilities, wholesale and retail trade, financial services, and consulting. Areas of specialization include: corporate planning, microeconomic analysis, statistics, securities analysis, real estate, international economics, finance, labor markets, macroeconomic forecasting, market research, and regional economics.
MEETING PARTICIPANTS— what we purchase and recommend	Meeting attendees purchase or recommend books, training programs, software, data services, consulting services, professional advancement tools, online news services, and business publications, including newspapers and magazines. Attendees are highly educated and are looking for the latest and best ideas. They are active consumers of items that will help improve their work and their careers. NABE members have a median base salary of $109,000 and 90 percent have advanced degrees (2006 Salary Survey).
SPONSORSHIPS	We have four levels of sponsorships, and benefits are many: recognized in signage at the meeting, cited in the promotion materials, announced at the meeting, recognized in NABE News, listed on NABE's website with a hot link to your site, reserved space for advertising opportunities, and more. See pages 4-7.
PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES	Take advantage of promotional opportunities. Provide attendees materials they can take back to the office--see page 7. Also see page 10.
EXHIBITS	Rent exhibit space in a high-traffic area; display your product line to a prime market segment. See pages 8-9.

Sponsorship Opportunities

As a meeting sponsor you can count on reaching at least 400 economic and finance professionals at the meeting and an additional 6,000 others who will see your name and/or click on your website. These professionals are active consumers of the latest and best ideas and tools that will help improve their work and their careers. They are opinion leaders who recommend ideas and tools to their colleagues.

Meeting Meal Functions

These sit-down functions provided for all meeting attendees are a great opportunity to show your organization's support to all meeting attendees. You also have the opportunity to introduce the speaker. The functions are:

- Sunday luncheon, with the governor of California (taken)
- Monday luncheon, with the Adam Smith award recipient, John Taylor (taken)
- Tuesday breakfast, with the Hal Varian, UC Berkeley (invited)
- Tuesday luncheon, with Paul Allen, co-founder of Microsoft (invited)
