General Information

ABOUT NABE	NABE, a nonprofit professional association founded in 1959, provides programs to more than 2,300 active members and the members of forty-one chapters nation-wide. Our members are business analysts and economists, finance and treasury professionals, money managers and other market participants, and policy makers. Alan Greenspan is a past president.
MEETING PARTICIPANTS— who we are	Three hundred professionals from major corporations, small businesses, non-profit associations, universities, and government. Industries represented: energy, construction, manufacturing, transportation, communication, utilities, wholesale and retail trade, financial services, and consulting. Areas of specialization include: corporate planning, microeconomic analysis, statistics, securities analysis, real estate, international economics, finance, labor markets, macroeconomic forecasting, market research, and regional economics.
MEETING PARTICIPANTS— what we purchase and recommend	Meeting attendees purchase or recommend books, training programs, software, data services, consulting services, professional advancement tools, online news services, and business publications, including newspapers and magazines. Attendees are highly educated and are looking for the latest and best ideas. They are active consumers of items that will help improve their work and their careers. NABE members have a median base salary of $109,000 and 90 percent have advanced degrees (2008 Salary Survey).
SPONSORSHIPS	We have four levels of sponsorships, and benefits are many: recognized in signage at the meeting, cited in the promotion materials, announced at the meeting, recognized in NABE News, listed on NABE’s website with a hot link to your site, reserved space for advertising opportunities, and more. See pages 4-7.
PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES	Take advantage of promotional opportunities. Provide attendees materials they can take back to the office--see page 7. Also see page 10.
EXHIBITS	Rent exhibit space in a high-traffic area; display your product line to a prime market segment. See pages 8-9.
