

GIC Global Conference Series Presents:
Food and Water - Basic Challenges to International Stability • Part V
&
Financial Interdependence in the World's Post-Crisis Capital Markets • Part III

Join GIC as we conclude our global conference series on Food and Water Security in South America. As we return to Chile this spring, GIC has an exciting agenda planned including a coastal wine tour in between the conference on capital market interdependencies at the Central Bank of Chile and our meeting on themes of Food, Agriculture, Trade and Protectionism (partner and venue TBA).

Thursday, March 25th

Dinner at the beautiful historic Palacio Concha, the remaining jewel from the grandeurs of Chile's Golden Age

Friday, March 26th

GIC Meeting focusing on Food, Agriculture, Trade and Protectionism (partner and venue TBA)

Saturday, March 27th

Morning tour with Matetic Reserve Wines, Tour of Valparaíso with lunch at Café Torres followed by Museum La Sebastiana

Sunday, March 28th

Morning tour of Santiago with a walk through the historic center for lunch at Zullys.

Monday, March 29th

All day conference at Central Bank of Chile featuring Jose DeGregorio, Governor of the Central Bank of Chile, Jeff Lacker, President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond and Eugenio J. Alemán, Senior Economist & Vice President, Wells Fargo Economics

CONTACT: jfornito@interdependence.org or call GIC at 215-898-9453

Members $250 • Non-Members $350 (includes one year membership with registration.)

GIC is delighted to acknowledge our partners in this Global Conference Series.

GIC gratefully acknowledges the following companies for their financial support of this Global Conference Series

