

June 13th-15th Prague, Czech Republic • June 16th-18th Paris, France

Conference Itinerary

Please note: This is a preliminary agenda that is still evolving. Updates will be posted online.

Sunday, June 13th

Walking tour of Prague followed by lunch at Palfy Palace with Dr. Peter Steiner,
Professor, Slavic Languages & Literatures, University of Pennsylvania

Monday, June 14th and Tuesday, June 15th

Programs at the Center for Economic Research and Graduate Education of Charles University (CERGE)

Program topics to include:

The Changing Borders of Europe: An Historical Overview

Presentation by Peter Steiner, Professor of Slavic Languages & Literature, University of Pennsylvania

Central Bank Panel: This panel of central bankers from Czech Republic, United States, France, Estonia, Poland, and Hungary will explore monetary policy and issues in working with Euro and non-Euro countries within the European Union in the aftermath of the crisis in Greece. Governor Zdenek Tuma of Czech National Bank will participate. Others TBC.

Millennium Technologies: Case study of Czech waste management company as it operates within the framework of the EU's energy and environmental policy.

An Outlook on Post-Crisis Central Europe: A Private Roundtable Discussion

Some topics still pending. Discussants include:

- Manuel Balmaseda Del Campo, CEMEX, “Central European Economies”
- Hubert Fromlet, Linnaeus University and Jönköping International Business School, “Post-Crisis Ties Between China and European Union”
- Cecilia Hermansson, Chief Economist Swedbank, “An Update on Current Issues in Banking for Central Europe and the Baltics”
- Martin Jetzer, HSBC Private Bank (Suisse) SA
- Christopher Jylkka, Boston Energy
- David Kotok, Cumberland Advisors
- Timo Tyrväinen, Aktia Bank, “Post Crisis Monetary Policy in Central Europe: An Outlook for the ERM and Expansion of Euro Zone.”

Wednesday, June 16th

Delegates will travel to Paris, France followed by a Welcome Bistro Dinner at Aux Anysetiers du Roy

Thursday, June 17th and Friday, June 18th

GIC will partner with Banque de France for our full day conference, open to the public. Friday will include Private Roundtable Discussion generously sponsored by Wachovia/Wells Fargo. Confirmed speakers in Paris include:

Governor Christian Noyer, Banque de France
Julian Callow, Barclays Capital
Martin Barnes, BCA Research
J. Paul Horne, Independent Economist
Michael Lewitt, Harch Capital
John Silvia, Wells Fargo Securities

Rudy Penner, The Urban Institute
David Kotok, Cumberland Advisors
Josh Rosner, Graham Fisher & Co., Inc
Kozo Koide, DIAM Co. Ltd.
John Mauldin, Millennium Wave Investments
James Lucier, Capital Alpha Partners

Registration for this dual-city program is $300 for GIC Members and $400 for non members.
To reserve your space, please register online or call GIC at 215-898-9453.

GIC gratefully acknowledges the following companies for their financial support of the 2010 Global Conference Series.

Lead Sponsors

GIC would like to thank our partners in the 2010 Global Conference Series.

