

2005 Washington Economic Policy Conference Program Changes

New Sponsor

New Advertiser

Quantitative Micro Software

Monday, March 21, 2005

7:45-8:25 AM Salon A/B	“Economic Policies of the New Administration” Add: Kristin Forbes, Member, Council of Economic Advisers Remove: Keith Hennessey
10:45-12 Noon Salon D	“Universities in Economic Development” Add: Benjamin Wu, Assistant Secretary, Technology Administration, U.S. Dept. of Commerce Remove: Phillip Bond
1:45-3:00 PM London Room 2	Poster Session Add: “Is Small Beautiful? Issues in Economic Research by Small Centers for Small Regions,” Martha Meaney, Professor & Coordinating Director of Metro West Economic Research Organization, Framingham State College
5:00-5:45 PM Salon D	“Issues in Corporate Governance” Add: Daniel L. Goelzer, Board Member, Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Remove: William J. McDonough
5:00-5:45 PM	Previously scheduled “Energy Policy Under the Current Administration” has been deleted.

Tuesday, March 22, 2005

9:15-10:30 AM Salon D	“Human Capital and U.S. Competitiveness” Add: Flavio Rezende-Cunha, Research Associate, Center for Program Evaluation, University of Chicago; and Dimitriy V. Masterov, Professor of Economic, University of Chicago Remove: Pedro Carneiro
9:15-10:30 AM Salon E	“Can Health Care Costs Be Slowed Without Sacrificing Quality?” Sponsor: Centene Corporation

NABE Roundtables

Roundtable members—join your roundtable’s reserved table at the following events:

Monday luncheon: International, Technology, and Health Economics Roundtables

Tuesday breakfast: Manufacturing and Regional/Utility Roundtables

See signs on reserved tables for your roundtable.